

Why Does History Make Us Uncomfortable?

MONDAY, APRIL 10, 6 P.M. (EDT)

Indiana Landmarks Center / Attend in-person or watch online

At a time when schools and legislatures debate restrictions on teaching material covering troubling episodes from our nation's past, a panel discussion examines what it is about our collective history that makes us want to close our eyes and ears.

Sponsored by Indiana Landmarks' Black Heritage Preservation Program, the Indiana Remembrance Coalition at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, and the Social Justice and Racial Reconciliation Working Group at Trinity Episcopal Church.
